Palestine Solidarity Campaign (PSC) campaigns for peace & justice for Palestinians, in support of international law and human rights and against all forms of racism. We campaign for Palestinian rights, including the right to self-determination and the right of return, and to oppose Israel's occupation and violations of international law.

PSC has been organising increasingly large lobbies of Parliament, mass demonstrations against the attacks on Gaza and the West Bank – with 200,000 marching through central London in May 2021 - building the BDS movement and raising public consciousness about Palestine in the UK.

PSC has over 70 local branches around the country and works with students, faith groups, trade unions and many other campaigning, cultural and political organisations in Palestine, Israel, the UK and beyond, and is opposed to all forms of racism, including anti-Semitism and Islamophobia.

The trade union movement is closely linked with our work in the UK, with 14 National trade unions, and hundreds of local and regional branches, affiliated to PSC. This is a central strand of PSC's work and it represents the largest network of trade unions standing in solidarity and taking action for justice for the Palestinian people.

The national unions affiliated to PSC are ASLEF, BFAWU, CWU, FBU, GMB, The MU, NEU, NAPO, PCS, RMT, TSSA, UCU, UNISON, UNITE the Union.

Palestinian workers and their families face injustice and oppression in all aspects of their daily lives, living and working under the Israeli imposed apartheid regime and military occupation.

That same system is responsible for huge levels of unemployment in the occupied territory, in turn forcing Palestinian workers to find insecure employment in the illegal Israeli settlements or in Israel. There they face, among other things, poor working conditions, low wages, and very little in terms of social protection. Furthermore, these workers will have to cope with the added humiliation of having to queue at Israeli checkpoints and border crossing, sometimes for hours in the middle of the night, as well as long, and sometimes dangerous, journeys to and from their workplace.

Now more than ever, we must stand in solidarity with the Palestinian people. Join us and affiliate to PSC now to support our crucial work for justice and equality in Palestine.
