

I strongly support and will continue to work for a two state solution – Israel free from the threat of terrorism and having normalised relations with the other Middle Eastern countries alongside a viable and democratic Palestinian State.

I have and will continue to oppose the expansion of Israel settlements which are an obstacle to peace.

I believe it is essential that there is an immediate resumption of direct negotiation. They should be brokered not only by the US but the Arab League