

At the time of the dissolution of parliament I was a government minister, so I cannot answer your questions directly. However, if you examine my voting record and earlier speeches you will discover that I have consistently supported the Palestinian cause and voted to support the establishment of a Palestinian state.