

I too am very concerned about human rights in Palestine and over many years have supported their cause. Until Israel adopts a more conciliatory tone about the Palestinian right to exist on their own land, there will be very little movement on these crucial issues. Western governments, particularly the UK and the USA certainly need more pressure put on them.

Regards
Jan Ross

East Devon Labour Party